

2019 SIM PCMH Initiative Summit

“Sustaining the Gains Through Smart Delivery and Cost-Effective Care” Celebrating the Seminal Year of SIM

Tuesday, November 12, 2019 from 8:30 AM to 3:30 PM

Kellogg Hotel & Conference Center, Michigan State University 219 S Harrison Rd, East Lansing, MI 48824

- 7:30 - 8:30 Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 8:30 - 8:40 Welcome/Context Setting/State Kick-Off
- 8:40 - 9:40 Plenary: "Sustaining the Gains Through Smart Delivery & Cost-Effective Care"

Stacey Bartell MD

Medical Director and Faculty, Family Medicine
Ascension Providence Medical Center South Lyon
Ascension Providence Family Medicine Residency
Ascension Medical Group SE Michigan

- Session Objective: Explain perspectives on the future of primary care and the factors that will position organizations for success

- 9:40 - 10:50 Concurrent Morning Breakout Sessions

1. Lessons from a Partner State: Building Strong Partnerships

Jill S. Rinehart, MD FAAP

University of Vermont Children's Hospital Pediatric Residency Program Director
Associate Professor of Pediatrics Robert J. Larner School of Medicine at the University of Vermont

- Session Objective: Describe the landscape of primary care in Vermont and approaches to best partner with families, caregivers, patients and others to support population health

SIM PCMH Initiative

2. Healthier Communities: What Works to Make Real Change

Carrie Hribar, MA

Planning and Evaluation Supervisor
Oakland County Health Division

Joshua Williams, LLMSW, BSW

Clinical & Community Liaison
Prevention & Community Health
Jackson Collaborative Network

Jenifer Murray RN, MPH

Regional HUB Coordinator
Northern Michigan CHIR

- Session Objective: Relate the approaches of groups that partner with community stakeholders to work together on health innovation and identify the strategies that they use to address population health improvement, including SDoH gap needs

3. Acting on SDoH Data: Beyond Screening

Leah Corneail, MPH

Senior Project Manager
Michigan Medicine Quality Department

Roseanne Paglia, PharmD

Dyad Executive
Clinical Pharmacy Specialist
Partners in Care
Ascension Michigan Pharmacy

Ernest Yoder, MD, PhD, MACP

Director Medical Education, Designated Institutional Officer
Detroit Wayne County Health Authority
Clinical Professor of Medicine
MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

- Session Objective: Relate the strategies for optimizing SDoH use in patient care planning, community resource discussions, and state-level policy and planning

SIM PCMH Initiative

10:50 - 11:00 Morning Break

11:00 - 12:00 Medicaid Health Plan Panel

- Session Objective: Discuss approaches and focus areas from the Medicaid Health Plan perspective

12:00 - 1:00 Lunch

1:00 - 2:10 Concurrent Afternoon Breakout Sessions

1. Evaluation Results

Clare Tanner, PhD
Program Director
Michigan Public Health Institute

- Session Objective: To provide an update for SIM participants on the results of the evaluation to date

2. Adverse Events: From Trauma to Resiliency

Jill S. Rinehart, MD FAAP
University of Vermont Children's Hospital Pediatric Residency Program Director
Associate Professor of Pediatrics Robert J. Larner School of Medicine at the University of Vermont

- Session Objective: Identify strategies to address trauma informed care while incorporating coping and resiliency skills resulting in patient empowerment

3. Adolescent Depression: Presentation, Diagnosis, and Treatment

Richard Dopp, MD
Clinical Assistant Professor
Department of Psychiatry
Michigan Medicine

SIM PCMH Initiative

- Session Objective: Identify the signs/symptoms of depression during adolescence and to describe evidence-based treatments for depression including psychotherapy, medications, and self-care strategies.

2:10 - 2:20 Afternoon Break

2:20 - 3:20 Next Steps and Alternative Payment Models

Tom Curtis, MPA

Quality Improvement & Program Development Section
Managed Care Plan Division
Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

Sandra Greyerbiehl, MSW

Quality Improvement Payment Specialist
Managed Care Plan Division
Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

- Session Objective: Recognize how the State is approaching continuing supporting the best practices developed and implemented by participants via the State Innovation Model (SIM)

3:20 - 3:30 Wrap-Up and Closing Remarks

SIM PCMH Initiative

